TRE LONELY HEART.-BY MISS STICKNEY.

They tell me I am happy, and I try to think it true; They say I have no cause to weep, my sorrows are so few— That in the wilderness we tread, mine is a favored lot— My petty griefs all fantusies, would I but heed them not.

It may be so; the cup of life has many a bitter draught,

It may be so; I cannot tell what others have to bear, But sorry midd I be to give another heart my share. They bid me to the festive board-I go, a smiling guest;

Their laughter and their revelry are torture to my breast: They call for music, and there comes some old familiar strain,-

I dash away the starting tear, then turn and smile again. But oh! my heart is wandering back to my father's home,

Back to my sisters at their play, the meadows in their bloom, The blackbird on the scented thorn, the murmuring of the The sounds upon the evening breeze, like voices in a dream-

The watchful eyes that never more shall gaze upon my

And heed not when the stranger sighs, nor mark the tears that There can be no companionship for loneliness of heart.

BY CAPTAIN MARRYATT.

"Well, then, you must know when I was aboard of the Terp-sy-chore, there was a foretop-man, of the name of Bill Harness, a good sort of chap enough, but rather soft in the upper-works. Now we'd been on the rather soft in the upper-works. Now we'd been on the Jamaica station for some years, and had come home, and merry enough, and happy enough, we were, (those that were left of us) and we were spending our money like the devil. Bill Harness had a wife, who was very fond of he, and he were very fond of she, but she was a slatternly sort of a body, never tidy in her rigging, all adrift at all times, and what's more, she never had a Sall; and the first lieutenant, who was a 'ticular sort of Sp. fice of the City Treasurer in Boston.

By direction of Committee of Finance.

Sept 13 RICHARD D. HARRIS, City Treasurer. a chap, never liked to see her on deck, for you see she put her hair in paper on New Year's day, and never changed it or took it out till the year came round again. However, be it as it may be, she loved Bill, and Bill loved she, and they were very happy together. A'ter all, it ar'n't whether a woman's tidy without, that makes a man's happiness, it depends upon whether she be right notice. within; that is, if she be good-tempered, and obliging, and civil, and 'commodating, and so forth. A'ter the first day or two, person's nothing-eyes get palled, like the capstern when the anchor's up to the bows; but what a man likes is, not to be disturbed by the vagaries, or gusts of temper.

Well, Bill was happy-but one day he was devilish unhappy, because Sal had lost one of her shoes, which wasn't to be wondered at, considering as how she was always slipshod. 'Who has seen my wife's shoe?' says he. 'Hang your wife's shoe,' said one, it warn't worth casting an eye upon.' Still he cried out, 'Who has seen my wife's shoe?' 'I seed it,' says another. 'Where?' says Bill 'I seed it down at heal,' says another. 'Where?' says Bill. 'I seed it down at heel,' says the fellow. But Bill still hallooed out about his wife's shoe, which it appeared she had dropped off her foot as she hall fresh and worthy of the attention of purchasers. was going up the forecastle ladder to take the air a bit, just as it was dark. At last, Bill made so much fuss about it that the ship's company laughed, and all called out to each other, 'Who has seen Sall's shoe?'—'Have you got Sal's shoe?' and they passed the word fore and aft the whole evening, till they went to their hammocks.

'D—n Sall's shoe,' said he, haven't I enough to look after without your wife's confounded shoes, which can't be worth twopence.' Well, Bill argues that his wife has only one shoe left, and that will be first lieutenant as how he had lost stock, imported principally the present year, and which will be disposed of at a large sacrifice—he has just received 10 cases French Goods, comprising Silks, Blondes, Shawls, Flannels, &c. which having arrived out of season, will be sold at cost of importation.

At last one of the boys picks it out of the manger, where it had lain all the night, poked up and down by the noses of the pigs, who didn't think it eatable, although noses of the pigs, who didn't think it eatable, although it might have smelt human-like; the fact was, it was Stoves, four sizes.

It sartainly did not seem to be worth all the trouble, but howsomever it was taken aft by the master-at-arms, and laid on the capstern head. Then Bill steps out, and takes the shoe before the first lieutenant, and cuts it open, and from between the lining pulls out four ten-pound notes, which Sall had sewn up there by way of security; and the first lieutenant tells Bill he was a great fool to trust his money in the shoe of a woman who always went slipshod, and tells him to go about his business, and stow his money away in a safer place next time. young Mandarin, named Tinqua, brought him a Chinese MS. containing an account of the origin of chess. In the MS. it is shown that 379 years after the time of Confucius, or 1,965 years ago, Hung Choch, King of Kiangnan, sent an army into the country of Chensi, under the command of a Mandarin, called Hansi, to conquer it. After one successful campaign the soldiers were put into winter quarters, where, finding the weather much colder than their own country, and being deprived of their wives and families, they became impatient of their situation and clamorous to return home .-Hansi perceived the bad consequences of complying with their wishes, and the necessity of quieting his men, for the finishing of his operations in the ensuing year appeared urgent. He was a man of genius as well as a good soldier, and having considered for some time on the subject, invented the game of chess, as well to amuse their unemployed hours, as to inflame their military ardour, the game being wholly founded on the principles of war; the stratagem succeeded to his wishes, the soldiers were delighted with the game, and forgot in their daily contests for victory the inconveniences of their post. In the spring the General again took the field, and in a few months added the rich country of Chensi to the kingdom of Kiangnan, by the defeat and capture of its King, Choupuyuen, a famous warrior among the

Another "Whig Victory" in North Carolina. -The Hon. BEDFORD BROWN, a warm and efficient er of the present administration, has been elect-Senate of the United States, by a majority of -Two over all other candidates. This election is a striking commentary upon the worth of the assertiens of the Bank papers, all of whom but recently claimed North Carolina as one of their "regenerated" States, and many did not hesitate to declare, from "As-CERTAINED FACTS," that there was a sweeping majority against the President in the Legislature of the The democratic papers, at the time, claimed a majority of 30 in joint ballot, and the result has shown that they did not, like the Bank papers, "reckon without their host." It is an indisputable fact that the Bank papers are utterly unworthy of belief, where they have the least inducement to speak false-and it is equally true that among the well informed men of their own party, no reliance whatever is placed upon their statements. Their misrepresentations may deceive a few who see no other papers, but they are earning for their originators a reputation which few will envy them the quiet and undivided possession of.

Mississippi .- A letter dated at Jackson, on the 5th inst. immediately after the close of the Democratic State Convention, states that it was very fully attended, about 130 delegates being present. The letter states that "Martin Van Buren was unanimously nominated for the Presidency, and Thomas H. Benton for Vice President:" we presume subject to the confirmation of the National Convention. Robert J. Walker, Esq., was nominated for the Senate in the place of Poindexterand Col. Claiborne and Judge Wright for Representa-The letter adds : " We have just had elections in two doubtful counties for vacancies in the State Legislature, and carried both by handsome majorities. Poindexter will be beat 3 to 1. I don't believe he will be run. He is now dropped by the Nullifiers, and I don't believe will get 10 votes out of 64."

Georgia.-The Augusta Transcript furnishes the resolutions which have been adopted by the Legislature of that State in relation to the citation of the Supreme Court of the United States, lately served upon it. They

Resolved, That they view with feelings of deep regret, another attempt to interfere with the administration of the criminal laws of this State by the use of the process of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Resolved, That the right to punish the perpetrators of crimes committed within the jurisdiction and chartered limits of the State, is one of those residuary rights, the exercise of which is of vital importance to the domestic peace and internal economy of such State, and the practical operation of which can in no wise conflict with the essential rights or interests of her co-states.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be, and he is hereby requested to communicate by express to the Sheriff of Marray county, the determination of this State to enforce her criminal laws : and that such orders be issued by him to that officer, as will ensure the execution of the laws in the case of James Graves, convicted of

Resolved, That the Sheriff of said county be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to employ a guard of armed men, if he shall deem the same necessary, to carry into execution the said sentence.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor, and all other officers of this State, be, and they are hereby required, to avoid any step by which the State of Georgia may be made a party to the case sought to be made before the Supreme Court of the United States by the said

The Bankites cry "Office Holders-Office Holders' upon every occasion, as if they had none in their ranks-this is not the case, although their party is principally made up of office seekers. At the Charlestown Swiggery-an affair got up by old Hartford Conventionists, and their brainless progeny, who have scarcely wit enough to jump into the shoes their fathers blacked-the first Vice President, next in rank to "my own Middlesex," has received some twelve or fifteen thousand dollars within the last ten years for performing the duties of a small clerkship in the Charlestown Navy Yard. He is holding office under an administration he assists in villifying, - and is a specimen of the "ruthless proscription" concerning which we have heard so much hypocritical cant during the last few

They are so in the habit of misrepresenting every thing, that when they do not do it intentionally, they are very apt to blunder into it.

Mr Webster's Confession .- Mr Webster in his speech at the Charlestown Swiggery, said :--

"If one set of opinions are paid and others are not paid, which of the two are most likely to be embraced? [a lawyer's question.] Those that are paid are adopted by those who will write and fight for PAY, and those individuals then carry on war against the community on the basis of their own interests.

Moral. - Daniel Webster voted against the incorporation of the present Bank—the Bank has paid him, aye paid him liberally, profusely, enormously. He is now for the Bank, carrying on the Bank war against the community, whether on the "basis of his own interests" or not, let the people judge.

But don't be alarmed, reader, it is merely of care in looking at the sun without any protection for whig declamation-prose run mad!

The Factory Girls at Exeter had a turn out last week. The great cause of complaint was the obstinate darkest green or red glasses of a sextant, and in default tardiness of the old Factory Clock, which would not of this a piece of common window glass, free from point to half after seven in the evening, until half an veins, and rendered quite black by the smoke of a hour after the appetites of those who watched its motions, had convinced them it was supper time. Remonstrances were unavailing, and the fair operatives threw themselves upon their "reserved rights." The matter was soon compromised by the hastening of the clock, and the girls returned to their work.

Trollopiana .- According to the correspondent of the London Court Journal, at the late dinner given to Earl Grey, at Edinburgh, the subscribers had no sooner been admitted to their seats than they commenced a vigorous attack upon the eatables, "notwithstanding the loud expressions of disapprobation by which teey were assailed from numerous companies occupying the platforms." They waited as little for ceremony as do we Americans on board of a steamboat, where, according to Basil-Hall-in-petticoats, we swallow our meat and murphies without chewing.

NDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatu ence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disin terested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain at tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table sooonful of it, which, in the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, 1 consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, be a very valuable medicine. It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half: and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Mik street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury. eop1yt

RON SAFES.—S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, Agents for selling Gaylor's Patent Double Fire Proof Wrought Iron Chests and Safes, 370 Washington-street, have now on hand a large assortment, comprising all the sizes and kinds which are calculated for the use of Banks, Insurance Offices, Town Re-

Calculated for the use of Banks, Insurance Offices, Town Records, Merchants, and others.

The above Chests are double throughout in all their parts, with double doors, each secured with Chubb's Patent Detector Locks, which cannot be picked; and the Chests are as completely Fire Proof as any vault or chest can be made. Proof of which can be seen by those who will take the trouble to call at the Agent's Store and examine a Double Chest which has passed through a very severe fire, and preserved a valuable lot of books and papers, belonging to John S. Abbott, Esq., whose name is attached to the following certificate:

"This is to certify, that one of the above described Double Safes, which I purchased of the Messrs. S. A. & W. G. Pierce was in my office in this town when the office was burned on the 2d day of November last—the building was of two stories, wooden, and large. The Safe, weighing 700 lbs. fell from the second story into the cellar, and was exposed to an intense heat for nearly three hours. It was for a long time literally red hot. It contained all the account books, notes, and courtpapers, that were in my office; and no paper was in the least degree burnt or rendered illegible. JOHN S. ABBOTT.

WATKINS, THOMSONIAN BOTANIC PHYSI-CIAN—Infirmary, Harvard street, (opposite 499 Wash-ngton street,) Boston—Has been acquainted with and possess-ed of a right to use Dr. Samuel Thomson's Patent Vegetable Medicine, for the last 21 years, and administered them in Europe, and South and North America, (including the West Europe, and South and North America, (including the West India Islands.) and with as much success as any other can, (with truth.) boast of. In the nine months' practice he has had at the Harvard street Infirmary, he has not had the misfortune to lose one patient, although many of them had been for years in the hands of the members of the Medical Faculty, and some of them abandoned to their (supposed) hopeless tate. As he is so well known in Boston, it is unnecessary to enter very largely into a detail of success. The following are a few ohis natients:

Stephen Gore, (inquire at Thomas Holland's Beach street, Boston,) totally blind for about 5 months, one eye, nearly destroyed, general debility, legs swollen and lame—appeared completely charged with poisons. General health restored; eye sight good—could see to read (without glasses) in 5 courses, &c. better than he could for seven years previous.

A. W. cannot be at the expense to enumerate more cases, at present. He has not named cases of fevers, they are almost too ephemeral in the hands of a physician acquainted with his duty—the ignoramus or continued fever, is unknown in the practice of such. Delicacy will not not permit the naming of several diseases, which he has treated with universal success. In almost all the cases of diseases which have been treated by him, he has been under the necessity to expel not

PATENT FOR THE U. STATES.—Mott's Patent Medicated and Champoo Baths, and Systematic Vegetable Medicine. These baths are well known to the medical faculty as being patronized by the most eminent Physicians of Europe and Asia, and are considered in the Oriental Empires as the greatest luxury they enjoy, being a preventive us well as a cure of contagious diseases—and they are now introduced in the United States in a new and perfect form, and with the greatest confidence of success. These Baths are medicated according to the disease—they are now open to the public, and necording to the disease—they are now open to the public, and will be administered to families or individuals, under the direction, or according to the prescription of their physician.

Dr. Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing,) Ulcers, Ab scesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, TicDoloroux, Cancers, Imposthumes, and other complaints incident to the human frame.

COMMERCIAL HOUSE.

No. 94 Commercial Street, Boston.
JOHN E. HUNT begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that the above House is now open as a Summer Establishment. Having had a long experience in keeping a genteel "Restaurateur," and eating house, he flatters himself that the reputation which he has gained will ensure him a liberal patronage.

Clubs, Parties, Engine and Fire Companies, can be accommodated at short notice, with every thing which the season affords. Coffee, Soups and refreshments, at all hours, and the Bar will be found stocked with the best of Liquors and Whes.

Merchants in the neighborhood of Commercial wharf, Ship Masters, and the numerous business men in that part of the city, are respectfully invited to call and inspect the convenence and accommodations of the place.

The House has been fitted up for an extensive but private Boarding House. Gentlemen intending to take the Southern Packets at the neighboring Slips, and Country Traders, will find airy rooms, good accommodations and prompt attendance, convenient to their business, and at the same time retired, confortable, and "at home."

J. E. H. pledges himself to devote his undivided attention to the establishment, and will ensure the public an orderly, well conducted house.
